

Medals and Awards 2007

● HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN has approved the award of the ROYAL MEDALS as follows:

Founder's Medal

Professor Roger Barry

(for international leadership of research on climate and climate change)

Patron's Medal

Professor Paul Curran

(for international development of geographical science through remote sensing and earth observation)

● THE SOCIETY'S COUNCIL has made the following awards:

Victoria Medal

Professor Peter Jackson

(for research on social geography)

Busk Medal

Professor Geoffrey Petts

(for research on river conservation)

Back Award

Professor Mike Bradshaw

(for applied research on economic change in post socialist economies)

Gill Memorial Award

Dr Kath Browne

(for research on the geographies of sexualities)

Ordnance Survey Awards
(two awards)

Paula Cooper

Val Vannet

(for excellence of geography teaching in secondary education)

Taylor & Francis Award

Professor Brian Chalkley

(for the promotion of teaching and learning in higher education)

Ness Award

Paul Rose

(for supporting and promoting the popular understanding of geography)

Edward Heath Award

Professor Janet Momsen

(for research on geography and gender in the developing world)

Geographical Award

The British Schools Exploring Society

(for engaging young people with scientific fieldwork through expeditions for 75 years)

Bradfords Award

Silverdale School

Castle School (joint runner up)

Acle High School (joint runner up)

(for innovation in secondary school geography departments)

Alfred Steers Dissertation Prize

Gerard Jennings

(for the undergraduate geography dissertation judged to be the best in 2006')

Area Prize

Dr Christine McCulloch

(for the best published article in the journal by a new researcher')

The paper was entitled: "Transparency: aid or obstacle to effective defence of vulnerable environments from reservoir construction? Dam decisions and democracy in North East England"